if a mistake is made then to ignore it. She advised parents to direct the energy of children elsewhere and encourage the good work of children.

The Chairman handed over to the EPTA Management Representative Pradeep Khandave Sir who briefed us about the three-way process of education which includes teachers, parents and students. He told parents that students spend 70% of their time with parents and 30% in school so they need to inculcate good habits as it is important for students development. There is no replacement of parents, teachers can be changed. Suggestion was given by Sir to keep guest lecture for parents as per their need and also parents can meet and interact with Principal and teachers. New Skilled based knowledge should be added and if needed training can be given to teachers. He suggested
